

The private cloud is a cloud computing environment where the infrastructure is dedicated to a single organization, ensuring complete privacy and control over the system. Both dedicated hardware and isolated infrastructure ensure that your data and resources are only accessible by authorized users within the organization. With that in mind, utilizing a private cloud provides you with enhanced security. That, as well as several other features, presents private cloud as an attractive option for many organizations.

Service Features

- Full Control
- Cost-effective long-term savings
- Predictable cost & performance
- 24x7x365 support team
- Replacement gear on-hand
- 2-factor bio-encrypted security
- Enhanced security
- Server building consultant

Benefits to your Organization

- Full control and access to all resources
- Like a car payment, you will only need to pay for maintenance after buying the equipment
- Consistent monthly bill resulting in no surprising high-cost bill
- On demand assistance from our IT experts & friendly customer support
- We will temporarily replace your broken EQ while your new parts come in
- Impenetrable physical security systems so only you and our techs can access your server
- Never worry about a rack neighbor bringing in a virus
- Industry veteran techs on-hand to walk along side you while you build your server

US Head Quarters

12201 Tukwila International Blvd #100
Tukwila, WA 98168

 (866) 883-8808

 www.wowrack.com

 sales@wowrack.com